

K-Love is the only station my family listens to. We depend on K-love for up to date information and enjoyable music. To lose K-love would be a disaster to our community. For the station is very positive and encouraging and K-love is very much needed during these hard times. Get rid of stations that sponsor Howard Stern and other shock jocks. Leave K-love alone!